

GRL: F
DRA: 10

Down at the Waterhole

ISBN 978-0-7664-3042-6

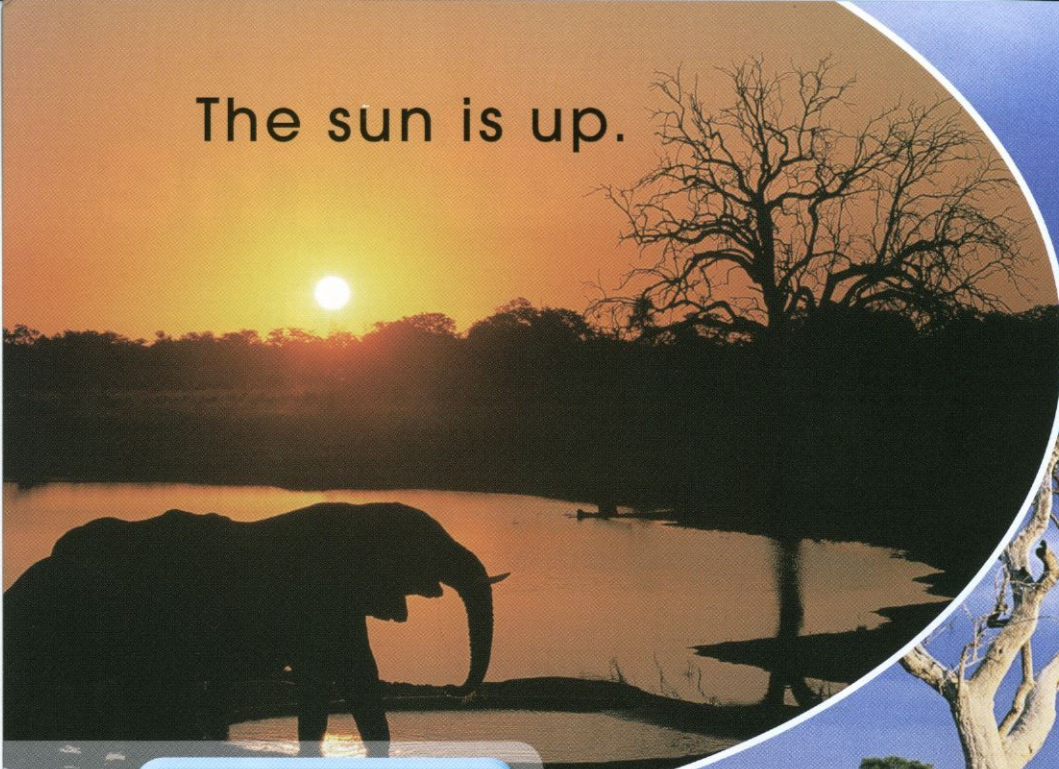

9 780766 430426

320043

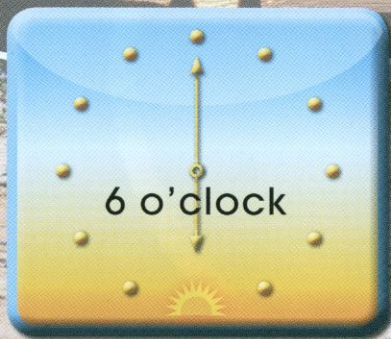

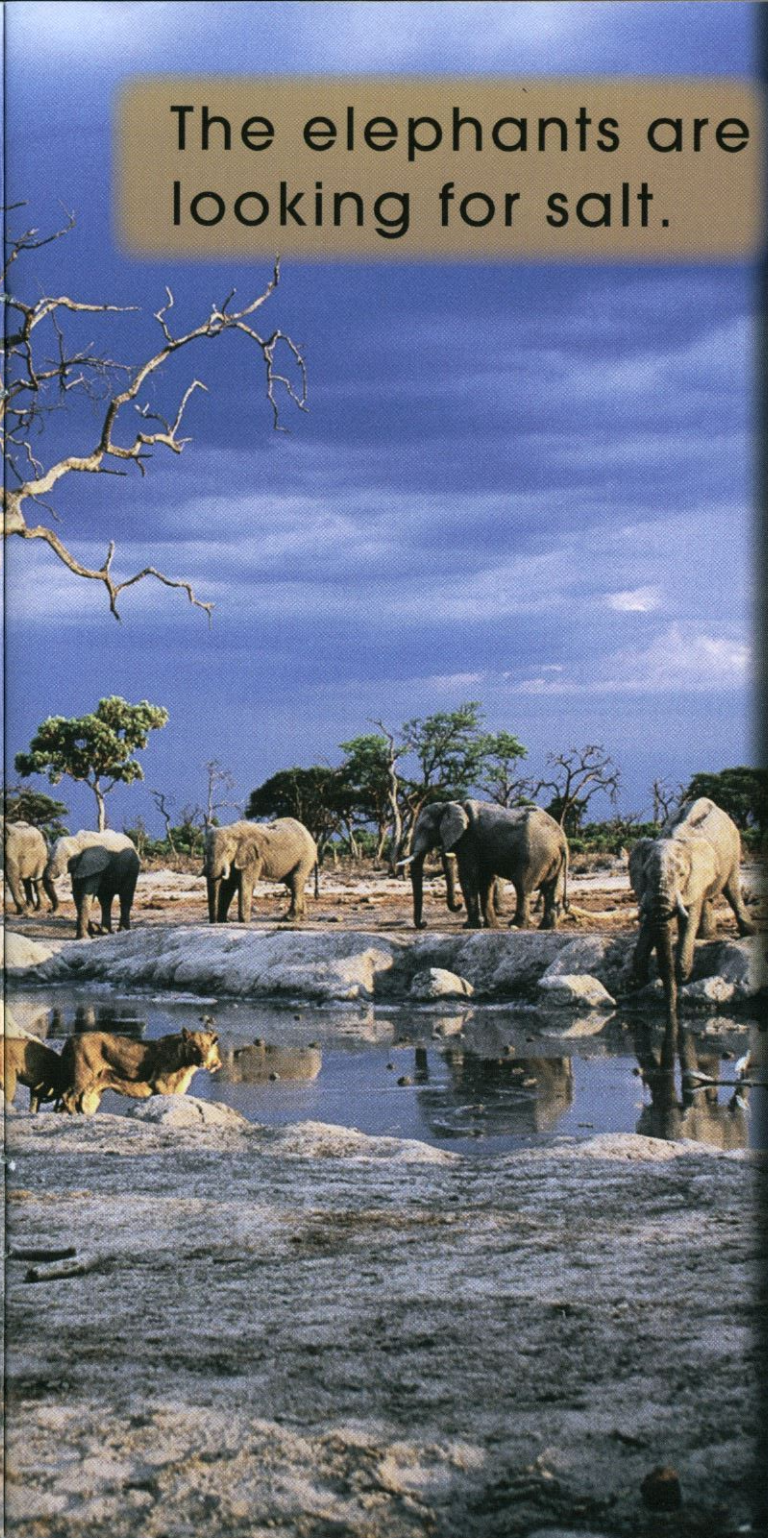

Written by Jill Eggleton

 Abrams
Learning Trends

The sun is up.

The elephants are looking for salt.

It is morning.

The lions and elephants are at the waterhole.

PREVIEW

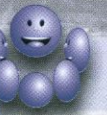

What do you see in these photographs? Look at the clock. It tells you what time of the day it is. What number do you see on the clock? How do you know it is morning? What animals do you see at the waterhole? Why do you think the animals are at the waterhole?

VIEW

Read the sentences.
Find the word waterhole. Put your finger around the two words you hear in waterhole. What are they?
Which sentence tells you what time of the day it is?

REVIEW

Write the word looking. Draw a circle around the word that says look (base word). Draw a circle around the word ending. What other word on these pages has the same letters?

Giraffes are at the waterhole, too.

hawk

A hawk is in the sky.
She is going to a nest in the tree.

PREVIEW

What animals
do you see now?

Why do you think all these animals are at the waterhole early in the morning?

Where is the hawk?

VIEW

Read the sentences and the label.

What words tell you
where the hawk is?

Where is the hawk
going?

Read the words that tell you. Is the hawk a male or female? How do you know?

REVIEW

Write the word tree. What two letters make the /tr/
blend? Draw a circle around them. Can you change the first two letters to a b? What word did you write?

Can you change the
first letter again and
make another word?

The sun is up
in the sky.
It is hot.

The elephants are in the water.

PREVIEW

Look at the clock now. Is it still morning? What time of the day is it? What do you do at this time of the day?

What do you think the elephants are doing? Why?

VIEW

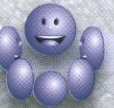

Read the sentences. Read the words that tell you where the sun is.

Which words tell you where the elephants are? Read them.

Why do you think the elephants are in the water?

REVIEW

Write the word it. Write it again and again.

Write the words is and in. What is the same? What is different?

The giraffes are eating leaves.

The hawk is looking for food.

The lions are sleeping.

PREVIEW

What are these animals doing? Are the lions in a cool place? How do you know?

VIEW

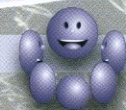

There are three words on these pages that have the same word ending. Can you find them? What is the ending (ing)?

Read the sentences to find out what the animals are doing.

What is the hawk doing?

Which animals are having a lazy time? What word tells you what they are doing?

REVIEW

Write the word look.

Make it looking.

Write the word sleep.

Make it sleeping.

Write the word go.

Make it going.

The sun is going down.
The elephants are
under a tree.
The hawk is flying.

The lion is scratching a tree.

PREVIEW

What time of the day is it now? How do you know? What does the clock say?

Where are all the animals?

The lion is scratching a tree.

Why do you think he is doing that? Who has a cat at home? Why do your cats scratch on things?

VIEW

Find the word that says scratching. What other words on these pages end the same?

Read the sentences. Where are the elephants? Which words tell you?

REVIEW

What do you do at this time of night?

It is dark.

The elephants are drinking.

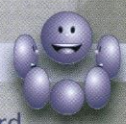

The giraffes are sleeping.

PREVIEW

Look at the clock. What do you do at this time? What are the animals at the waterhole doing?

VIEW

Find the word that says drinking. How do you know? Read the sentences. Find the word that says sleeping. Can you find the part that says sleep?

How do you know it isn't sunny? Which word tells you?

REVIEW

What question could you ask about the information on these pages? You can use - How, When, Why, What, Where, Who?

The lions are eating.
Where is the hawk?

The hawk is in a nest.

It is night
at the waterhole.

PREVIEW

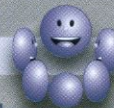

What are the lion and the hawk doing? Why do you think the lion is eating late at night?

VIEW

Can you find the question mark? Read these sentences and make your voice sound like you are talking. Remember, when you see the question mark, change your voice to make it sound like you are asking a question.

REVIEW

These animals were all at the waterhole. They did different things at different times. What do you do in the morning that is different from night? What is the same?